80 EDUCATORS DISCUSS GOOD HIGH SCHOOLS

Eighty educators from York, Adams and Franklin counties gathered Monday night at the Laurel Lake cottage of Gettysburg College decided after lengthy discussion that it is best to continue to give "one diploma, the same to every graduate," but to make sure that a transcript accompanies it "to tell the story."

The discussion, led by Gettysburg High School Principal Guile W. Lefever, took place as part of the 14th annual discussion conference being held by the schoolmen from the three counties at the college here Monday and today.

The question of "one diploma" arose because many educators feel it unjust to "give the straight A student who took the toughest courses the same diploma as the straight D student who took the easiest," as one of the educators put it.

Discuss "Good High School"

The discussion however showed that it would be "most difficult" to devise differing diplomas which would indicate at a glance just where a student stood in his schooling, and the group decided that since there is now a transcript for each student from seventh grade on telling exactly what courses he took and how he fared in his studies, it was best to "continue to give one diploma and let the transcript tell the story."

The two-day sessions are being held on the general theme "What Are the Essential Elements for a Good High School?"

Dr. Donald G. McGarey, professor of education, Pennsylvania State University, and William Donaldson, curriculum director of the

TRAVEL COUNCIL INSTALLS LANE AS PRESIDENT

Walter B. Lane, York St. photographer, was installed as the new president of the Gettysburg Travel Council at a meeting of the directors Monday evening at the Travel Council office in the Western Maryland Depot, Carlisle St.

Lane was moved up from the vice presidency upon the acceptance with regret of the resignation of President William G. Weaver who told the group that his duties in connection with the Jennie Wade Museum, Hall of Presidents and Diorama and other ventures "simply do not leave me enough time to carry on the work of the Travel Council."

With the moving up of Lane to the presidency, the board decided to hold an election for vice president, to fill the vacancy, at a general meeting of the Travel Council to be held at the VFW home, E. Middle St., on July 8.

Suggestion On Buses

A letter drawn up by a committee headed by Henry M. Scharf, to be sent all members of Travel Council, was approved. The letter outlines programs of the Travel Council for the coming year, and asks members to send in dues now to cover 1958 operations.

In response to a query from the borough concerning parking suggestions, the directors decided to draft a letter to the borough council recommending, among other things, that three quadrants of Lincoln Square be used, at least in part, for parking buses during the tourist season.

Plan Fall Campaign

The report of Edwin Bachman Jr. and George Hummel for the operation of the Travel Council information center showed 1,100 parties have visited the center since it opened May 16 and that more than 580 inquiries for information concerning Gettysburg have been answered since that date. One of the inquiries was from a Werner Mock of Brainschweig, Germany. Mock wrote that he plans to visit the United States and wanted information on how to get to Gettysburg which he said he understood is the "outstanding tourist attraction."

The board voted to hold the campaign for funds for 1959 this fall, rather than continue to conduct the campaigns each year in the spring and summer.

OPEN BIDS FOR PARK AVENUES RESURFACING

The Gettysburg National Park office here announced today the opening of bids Monday for the surfacing of an additional 7.4 miles of battlefield avenues.

The low bidder for the job is the All-State Hanover Company of Carlisle at its offer of $62,051.05. That was the lowest of four offers submitted. The other bidders were Bester-Long, Inc., Hagerstown; Hanover Construction Company, Hanover, and Maitland Brothers, Littlestown.

The contractor will have 100 days in which to complete the work after the contract is signed. The contract will call for a hot application of pre-mixed blacktop with edges to be "feathered in" to reduce central crowns where necessary.

The avenues covered in the new contract are Seminary, West Confederate, Sedgewick, Hancock, Webb, Virginia Memorial Dr., Wheatfield Rd., E. Confederate, Slocum, Latimer Battalion, Jones Battalion, Humphreys and Carmen.

Second Contract

This contract is in addition to a contract let last week for the surfacing of 4.38 miles of National Park avenues here. Work on that contract started today by the same low bidder, All-State Hanover from Carlisle. That contract is for $37,450.58.

Signed contracts covering the construction of a new pre-stressed concrete and steel bridge over the Western Maryland Railroad on Reynolds Ave. were received at the park office this morning. Starting date for that work will be set soon. The contractor is the West York Construction Company of York and the bid price was $62,445.55.

TELLS ROTARY OF BENEFITS FROM TOURISTS

Paul G. Witt, operator of the Gettysburg Motor Court, Steinwehr Ave., told the Gettysburg Rotary Club, at its meeting Monday evening in the YWCA, "The addition of only a few dozen tourists a day to a community is equal in financial benefits to the town to the establishment of a small factory in the community."

Speaking on "Motel Operation," Witt said: "Census figures recently completed show that during the first 15 weeks of last year people in the U. S. made 48 million round trips involving 4.3 days travel each, or 207 million travel days. That was the greatest amount of tourism in history and shows that tourist traffic is increasing and that Gettysburg can, if it seeks it, obtain a larger number of tourists."

The average tourist, he said, "out of each dollar spent during his trips, spends 27 cents for food and refreshments, 22 cents for transportation, 21 cents for lodging, 14 cents for retail products, seven cents for theaters and other amusements, four cents for tourist attractions and five cents for laundry and services.

Benefits Widespread

"The average motel spends out of each dollar brought in 31 cents for salaries and wages, 14 cents for taxes and insurance, 12½ cents for interest and mortgage payments, four cents for heat, light and power, and the most of the remainder for services of the printer, laundryman, dry cleaner and all the other services required fo successful operation of the business.

"The benefits of the tourist industry go to everyone in a com-

Chairman Denies SEC Favored Goldfine, Friends Of Adams

WASHINGTON (AP) — Securities and Exchange Commission Chairman Edward N. Gadsby hotly denied today that the SEC favored Bernard Goldfine, Sherman Adams' Boston industrialist friend, after getting a White House call in 1956.

"To put it bluntly," Gadsby told House investigators, "the commission could hardly have done more if Mr. Adams were Mr. Goldfine's worst enemy. . .

"I had thought that the era of trial by innuendo and inference had been disowed sometime ago. I dislike to see any members of persons connected with the Congress . . participate in a baseless attack reflecting on this agency's probity."

Gadsby's testimony prepared for the House subcommittee checking Goldfine's relations with federal regulatory agencies marked the opening of another phase of the inquiry, this time dealing with the SEC.

Asked Heavy Penalties

Previously the group had inquired into Federal Trade Commission affairs involving Goldfine.

The SEC already has said in a statement that its case against Goldfine was successfully prosecuted, and that the agency pushed for heavier penalties than a judge allowed.

SEC's general counsel was reported ready to testify too that he recalls only discussing the legal status of a Goldfine case — rather than confidential SEC information—at a 1956 White House meeting prompted by Adams.

Adams, President Eisenhower's top aide, has said he received information on the case but did not pass it along to Goldfine and asked no favors.

Renew Inquiry

The SEC officials were called as witnesses by a House subcommittee renewing its inquiry into how federal regulatory agencies treated Goldfine.

Subcommittee Chairman Oren Harris (D-Ark) said Goldfine got preferred treatment both from the SEC and the Federal Trade Commission.

Adams has acknowledged receiving expensive favors from Goldfine and contacting SEC and

FINDS THIEVES LOOTING JUNK, CALLS OFFICERS

John N. Sell, 26 E. King St., Littlestown, turned detective early this morning and as a result persons attempting to steal iron from his salvage yard, near Littlestown, lost a truck and the articles they attempted to steal. State police are now looking for the thieves.

Several weeks ago Sell noticed cast iron was missing from his salvage yard along a road, near Feeser's Dairy. He decided to make some unexpected trips to the yard through the night and early morning with the hope of discovering who was doing the stealing.

This morning, about 4 o'clock, Sell left his home and went to the junk yard.

Seek 3 Suspects

He arrived, state police said, to find a truck parked there, loaded with articles from the Sell salvage yard.

Sell disconnected some parts of the motor so the thieves could not move the vehicle and called police.

The officers later this morning were seeking three suspects whom they said had fled into Maryland.

Teletype were sent Maryland officers asking them to pickup the suspects for questioning by state police from the local barracks with the hope of discovering more about the larceny from the salvage yard.

The truck has been taken into custody by police until they conclude their investigation.

BABE DIES IN AMBULANCE ON WAY TO HOSPITAL

Six-month-old Wanda Kay Hawbaker, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Hawbaker, of Biglerville, died Monday morning about 10 o'clock as she was being rushed by ambulance with a police escort toward Hahnemann Hospital in Philadelphia.

When the ambulance followed the state police escort through a sudden U-turn in traffic after having reached speeds of 70 and 80 miles an hour from the Pennsylvania turnpike, the oxygen tent over the child topped over, the oxygen supply was cut and ice cubes under the tent were scattered.

Sterling Roth, Biglerville, who was accompanying the driver, Fred Arnold, also of Biglerville, in the Biglerville Fire Company ambulance, joined Nurse Edith Hawn in attempting to revive the child with a respirator carried in the ambulance.

Child Dead On Arrival

They continued their efforts until they reached Hahnemann Hospital about three hours after leaving the Warner Hospital here. The child was declared dead on arrival at the hospital and that was the report the youngster's parents received when they reached the hospital about 11 a.m. They had been outdistanced by the ambulance which reached the turnpike ahead of them and then had the advantage of the police escort through city traffic.

GHS Majorettes Going To Red Lion

A dozen Gettysburg High School majorettes went to Red Lion today for a three-day Twirling jubilee held under the sanction of the National Baton Twirling Association. MAN SOUGHT FOR THREATS TO EX-WIFE

State police today continued their search for Mark Michael Sullivan, 25-year-old Paxtang resident who they claim threatened to shoot his former wife, Loretta, at her parent's home, 410 Diller Rd., Conewago Twp., about 5:20 o'clock Monday afternoon.

Officers described Sullivan as five feet, eight, weighing 165 pounds and driving a light blue 1952 sedan with the license number K-5854.

Police said Sullivan has extensive cuts about the hands and arms caused when he smashed the glass of a rear door at the home of his wife, and, according to police, threatened to shoot her with a pistol.

Flees In Auto

The officers said Sullivan, who is divorced from his wife, appeared at the rear door, battered in the glass, and while the wife stood in the kitchen, holding a frying pan in an effort at self defense, her mother fled through the front door of the house, carrying her grandchild.

Sullivan, police said, apparently heard the commotion at the front door and dashed around the house, either to enter the building from the front or take after the person fleeing.

As the Paxtang man came around the front of the house he saw neighbors, attracted by the noise and screams, approaching. He dashed to his car and drove away.

The state police, called shortly after Sullivans left the scene, put out a teletype message throughout the state and into Maryland in an effort to find Sullivan. They plan to bring a charge of pointing a deadly weapon against him, police said.

Polaris Is Given Severe Test Today

CAPE CANAVERAL, Fla. (AP) —A lightning swift Polaris experimental rocket roared skyward today in a strenuous test of its guidance and control systems.

Just as was planned, the trim rocket twisted crazily high in the sky until its fuel ran out and it broke apart.

After rising about 100 feet, the Polaris jerked sharply to the left and continued straight up. The Navy explained the vehicle was directed to follow a flight patch involving abrupt upward and downward pitches.

The rocket, a forerunner of what probably will be the nation's most advanced intermediate range ballistic weapon, tumbled and then burst apart when fuel burnout occurred 25 seconds after takeoff.

Rains Ground Rocket At Camp Canaveral

CAPE CANAVERAL, Fla. (AP) — The Navy's temperamental Vanguard rocket—America's No. 1 satellite launching vehicle — flunked another test today.

After hours of hard work, the Vanguard crew gave up at 1:34 a.m. on another heart-breaking effort to get the slender rocket with its "basketball moon" off the ground.

The Navy said heavy rains had caused an accumulation of moisture in the rocket's wiring system which led to electrical short circuiting.

It was the second time in four days that the crew had been stymied in its effort to get this particular Vanguard off its launching pad. It was scrubbed last Thursday night after a long countdown.

STOCKS KEEP SLIPPING DOWN

NEW YORK (AP) — The stock market continued its moderate decline early this afternoon. Leading issues were down fractions to about a point.

Selected issues advanced a point or so. Among them was American Motors which halted its decline and moved ahead, adding about a point. The stock had declined on word from financier Louis E. Wolfson to the effect he was liquidating his 400,000 shares. The stock rebounded following an anouncement from an SEC official that a federal judge has signed an order restraining Wolfson from alleged further violations of the anti-fraud and manipulation provision of the securities exchange act of 1934.

The SEC official said Wolfson and associates were short more than 100,000 shares of the stock when a news item was published saying Wolfson was disposing of his shares. This would depress the market for the stock, the SEC officials said.

Steels, rails, oils, rubbers and most chemicals were off but there was little apparent selling pressure.

"ABOUT MY CRITICS"

The other day a so-called friend . . . played havoc with my rhyme . . . he told me that it wasn't worth . . . a single skinny dime . . . and as I listened to him speak . . . I took no great offense . . . for through his criticsm I . . . gained untold recompense . . . perhaps he didn't realize . . . he complimented me . . . by saying anything could happen . . . in my poetry . . . if this be true, then I am glad . . . and efforts are worthwhile . . . for in this world of hate and tears . . . it's well to paint a smile . . . if people gain a single ray . . . of hope from what I write . . . my heart is filled with happiness . . . and wonderful delight . . . and so when I am ridiculed . . . by those who think they know . . . I ask my critics what they do . . . to help ease mankind's woe.

J. L. HOLLINGER IS MARRIED IN BRIDGETON, N. J.

Miss Kay Frances Miller, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Hilton C. Miller, 431 Dare Ave., Bridgeton, N. J., and James Larry Hollinger, son of Mr. and Mrs. Paul L. Hollinger, S. Queen St., Littlestown, were united in marriage on Sunday, June 15, at 2 p.m. in Central Methodist Church, Bridgeton. The double-ring ceremony was performed by the Rev. W. Gordon Lowden.

An organ recital was presented prior to the ceremony by Harold Wright, of Salem, church organist.

MRS. HOLLINGER

The church altar was decorated with gladioli, chrysanthemums and daisies in back of the altar cross, palms and lighted candelabra.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride was attired in a gown of white georgette over net and taffeta, trimmed with bands of hand clipped Chantilly lace, featuring a pointed bodice of the same lace with draped scoop neck and short sleeves and ending in a swoop train. Her crown was of iridescent sequins and tear drop pearls with a fingertip veil of illusion edged with a wide border of Alencon lace. Her jewelry was a single strand of pearls, and she carried a cascade of white anthurium with ivy and baby's-breath.

Reception Held

The bride had two attendants, Mrs. William W. Reed Jr., Philadelphia, her sister, and Mrs. W. Wayne Woodward, Augusta, Ga., her college roommate for three years. They were dressed identically in gowns of white nylon with blue velveray rose design fashioned with scoop neck, blue satin cummerbund and flat loop satin bow in the back. They wore blue silk flower bandeaux with shoulder veils and their accessories were white. The attendant's carried cascade arrangements of yellow pompon chrysanthemums with ivy and baby's-breath.

Larry J. Feeser, Hanover R. D., was best man. Serving as ushers were Kenneth Hollinger, Littlestown, brother of the groom, and two fraternity brothers, Dean J. Sell, Littlestown, and Robert Bohi, Baltimore, roommate of the groom.

The mother of the bride wore a street-length dress of pink lace and her accessories matched her frock. She had a corsage of pink carnations. The mother of the groom wore a dress of Alice blue nylon tricot with a blue satin cummerbund. Her accessories were white and she had a corsage of pink rosebuds.

A reception was held following the ceremony in the Civic Club home. Decorations included branches of huckleberry around the four-tier wedding cake, vases of yellow chrysanthemums and candles.

Going To Law School

Mr. and Mrs. Hollinger left on a wedding trip through the New England states. For traveling, the bride chose a green and blue flowered cotton satin chemise with matching coat, white accessories and a white carnation corsage.

The bride was graduated magna cum laude from Dickinson College, Carlisle, with the class of 1958, where she received the degree of Bachelor of Arts and honors in English. She is a member of Phi Mu sorority and Pi Delta Epsilon, national honorary journalistic society.

The groom, a member of Sigma Alpha Epsilon fraternity, was graduated from Dickinson with a Bachelor of Arts degree with the class of 1958. He will study for two more years at Dickinson College of Law.

Alcorn Praises Adams

In the controversy over whether Adams should step down as Eisenhower's right-hand man:

The Republican national chairman, Meade Alcorn, praised Adams for ability and integrity but said, "Of course, no man is indispensable." He made that reply when asked in a radio interview whether, if Adams were forced out, "that might destroy President Eisenhower's desire to continue in office without this man upon whom he's so dependent?"

Sen. Barry Goldwater (R-Ariz) said Arizona county GOP chairmen think unanimously that Adams must go. Rep. Clarence Brown, Republican national committeeman from Ohio, said Adams' admitted imprudence has damaged the Republican cause.

Reads Original Story

Miss Ruth Gillelan, auxiliary member from Emmitsburg, presented many booklets she had made for the children in the hospital. Several members brought donations to the lending library which is being initiated by the Snack Bar and to the gift counter of the Snack Bar.

Mrs. Kathrine Kressman Taylor, instructor in English at Gettysburg College, read one of her own short stories. The story, "Mr. Pan," is a poetic fable in a Chinese setting, and is based on the lines, "Where no foot approaches, the plum blossom no fragrance giveth." The story is that of a Chinese gentleman who learns of the "true and genuine significance" of living when he is faced with real responsibilities.

Kitchenettes Serve

Mrs. Taylor was introduced by Mrs. Roy W. Gifford, program chairman.

The Biglerville Kitchenettes were the hostesses for the meeting, with the following members serving on the committee: Mrs. William Harbaugh, Mrs. J. V. Hawbecker, Mrs. Richard Willman, Mrs. Lawrence McGlaughlin, Mrs. Russell Barbour, Mrs. Paul Osborn, and Mrs. Viola Steinberger.

The next auxiliary meeting will be the annual tea and installation of officers on September 22.

Tourists help everyone in a community, directly or indirectly."

Witt said he "traveled 30,000 miles to go from Somerset to Gettysburg." A retail merchant in San Diego, he went into the motel business in Somerset in 1952 when a brother-in-law, Eugene Zimmerman, who had a motel at Somerset, constructed the Holiday Motel near the turnpike.

Demands Of Business

In 1954 Witt sold his share of that motel to a partner and decided to go into the motel business by himself. "I traveled 30,000 miles over the U. S. looking for a site and found that in between trips I was constantly being drawn to Gettysburg. That was the decision I made and here we have been for the last three years."

He told the group: "Anyone can go into the motel business who can be satisfied with meals snatched a mouthful at a time, who requires no sleep, who is a mechanic, a gardener, a publicity agent, a handyman, a psychologist, a carpenter and midwife combined."

Vice President David Blocher presided at the meeting. William Lentz reported on the recent horse show sponsored by the Rotary and Gettysburg Riding Club.

30TH UNIT OF SCOUTS FORMED

The 30th unit of the Black Walnut Boy Scout District was formed Monday night at York Springs with the establishment of Explorer Post 89 in that community.

Scout field Executive Stanley C. Rogers presided at the meeting at which Post 89, the tenth Explorer post to be established by the Boy Scouts in the district, came into existance. The session was held in the York Springs drug store, and followed a series of training meetings held over the last four weeks under the direction of District Organization and Extension Chairman Timothy E. Farrell, Gettysburg R. 5 and assistant Ray Shupe, also of Gettysburg R. D.

Sponsored by the York Springs Lions Club, the new Explorer post will meeet Tusday evenings at 7:30 o'clock in the scout cabin at York Springs.

Harold C. Miller will serve as Explorer Advisor for the post with Dale R. King, assistant, Melvin S. Worley will be institutional representative, Robert W .Smith, chairman of the committee and M. Everett Weiser and Ivan C. Taylor, committee members.

Nine youths became charter members of the post. They were Harold Davis, Barry Hinkle, Ronald Hoff, Philip Guise, Kenton Taylor, Mark Weiser, Richard Wolff, Thomas Wolff and Chester Worley.

80 EDUCATORS

Washington County, Md., schools, are the two featured speakers at the two-day sessions. Most of the meetings are being held in four discussion groups, one each on guidance, curriculum, co-curricular activities and staff.

The general discussions indicate that the educators feel there should be a guidance counselor for each 350 to 500 students and that guidance should "be a cooperative program in which everyone has a share." Much of the session Monday was devoted to testing programs and "interpretation of the results."

Agree To Disagree

Discussion of "co-curricular" or "extra-curricular" activities led to wide differences of opinion. Dr. L. Eugene Jacques, superintendent of the Derry Township School, Hershey, told the group: "We are going in a circle with our program. Some years ago we had clubs of every kind. Some schools required each student to participate in at least one activity. Now the swing is just the opposite — to limit. Crawford County has decided to elimnate co-curricular activities entirely."

At Monday morning's session a group meeting decided "in connection with the amount of activities in which a student should participate, this group feels that participation should be limited." At the afternoon session the group taking part in the same discussion held, "It is the firm opinion of the majority that a child should not be limited to a number of activities."

Another decission of the afternoon group: "The group generally agreed that a student should be allowed to miss a class once in a while if the activity is worthwhile, but that missing all classes for athletics must be stopped."

Today's Talk

OUTLETS

It's our outlets that help so much to keep us alive and interested. Just like the rivers in nature, they must have their outlets to keep away damaging floods. The child must have his outlets, too, in order that his restless nervous system be appeased.

Each one of us human beings must have outlets in the shape of hobbies or special occupations of some sort. President Roosevelt had as an outlet the collecting of postage stamps. Many a President, and many a business man, must have these outlets in order to be kept interested and interesting. President Eisenhower, as all the world knows, has as his great outlet the playing of golf. And Winston Churchill creates happy hours with his paints and brushes.

I read in my newspaper today of a chap who made his own boat, equipped it with a powerful outboard motor — and won the world's championship in its class! What wonders each of us can perform by creating outlets to our extra, or excess ideas, or energy.

Were it not for the outlets on many engines, they would be dangerous to run. At this time of year, in many parts of the country, and also Canada, thousands are now using their favorite outlet by goin' fishing. Many of our outstanding public men are noted fishermen. Fishing is one of the world's great outlets.

Many a writer draws upon his extra time, and pent-up energy, to write a novel. It is a useful outlet, and thrilling to the one who aims high — and reaches his goal among the best/sellers. Merely because that book reaches the best seller list is no guarantee, however, it is a book that will live!

Tomorrow Mr. Adams will talk on the subject: "Invest Your Blessings"

Protected, 1958, by The George Matthew Adams Service

Just Folks

WHAT HE DIDN'T KNOW

He talked about how much he knew
And bragged of his powers of observation;
He settled in an hour or two
The gravest problems of the nation.
But there were things he didn't know,
For while he sat and aired his views
His wife was wondering where to go
For money for the children's shoes.

He didn't see the patches on
The little fellow's pants and coat—
Those things the keen, observing one
Had somehow sadlyy failed to note.
To hear him talk, a lot he knew;
But he'd a wife who lived in woe
And missed the joys that were her due,
And that he didn't seem to know.

Every Sponsored Live TV Show Has "Checker-uppers"

By CYNTHIA LOWRY

NEW YORK (AP)—On a recent television thriller, the victim met his end by stove gas. The turn of events came as a great surprise to the author of the show who had painstakingly figured out murder by means of a live electric wire.

As it happened, the rewrite of that portion of plot was no reflection on the writer's ingenuity. It was just that the sponsor of the show happens to be the manufacturer of electric household devices.

In the planning of every sponsored, live television show there is some responsible soul, employed by an interested advertising agency, who is constantly on the lookout for untoward situations.

Pies Misfits Sometimes

"You are so accustomed to checking scripts against clients' products that you don't even think much about it," says one agency program supervisor. "It's a built-in protection."

Thus some interesting changes and arrangements are made. In one show, it was necessary to show a number of closeups of a robber's getaway car, so close that it would be easy to identify the make of vehicle. The interested advertising agency had clients who manufacture automobiles, even though they were not sponsors of that particular show. The getaway car was chosen very carefully: a four-year-old model of a car handled by a rival agency. The theory was that a nice car is used by nice people.

It is perfectly all right to hit a comedian in the face with a pie on a program sponsored by a pharmaceutical house selling pills, all other conditions being complied with. It is strictly banned, however, in shows sponsored by a big food specialty manufacturer whose products include pie filling mixes and a pie crust mix. When pies are shown on their time, they want them taken seriously.

Use Free Crops Too

Beer manufacturers don't like drunk scenes; linoleum manufacturers don't like shots of people slipping; airplane people hate plane crash dramas and so it goes all the way down the line.

The people who watch for these things also have the job of seeing that clients' products are used whenever possible. When a kitchen equipment manufacturer's show has a scene in the kitchen, it is carefully decked out in the nicest examples of the sponsor's product. One TV-wise manufacturer has on hand examples of its obsolete models so that, if the scene is laid in 1935, its own product can still be correctly shown.

"When it is feasible, too, we suggest that the scene use the product of other agency clients as long as they have to use some prop," said one advertising executive. "As long as they have to show a bottle of a soft drink, or a typewriter, for instance, they might just as well show the one we handle. Directors and producers are nice about it: we give them the prop free and they like to save money."

House Coeds In Men's Dormitory

KANSAS CITY (AP) — They've moved the coeds in with the men on the University of Kansas City campus, but it's strictly above board.

Women students occupy the fourth floor of the men's dormitory, the men the lower three floors. Previously, out-of-town coeds lived in approved homes around the city.

The men are separated from the women by special dormitory door locks which, when tampered with, trip an alarm system. It hasn't sounded yet.

Thousands Idled At Missile Plant

DETROIT (AP) — The government's attention was drawn today to labor trouble at Chrysler guided missile plant developing as an offshoot of the auto industry's no-contract period.

A wildcat strike by United Auto Workers members idled several thousand men Monday at Chrysler's Redstone and Jupiter parts factory and resulted in a "total loss" for the day's first shift.

Picketing members of UAW Local 1245, which represents about 450 of the plant's 9,500 employes, blocked gates to protest what they called company discrimination against union members. Chrysler denied this.

The UAW has had no contracts at the industry's Big Three — Chrysler, Ford and General Motors — since expiration of the old three-year pacts on the Memorial Day weekend.

Arrest Trucker In Murder, Holdup

SLIDELL, La. (AP)—A young truck driver from Pennsylvania was captured Monday soon after a woman clerk was shot to death during an attempted five-and-dime store holdup.

The driver, Delbert W. Eyer, 24, of Shippensburg, Pa., was captured 10 miles outside of town. He said he had nothing to do with the attempted robbery or the shooting of Myrtle Pichon, 47. He was whisked away to an undisclosed jail.

Police said the would-be robber tried unsuccessfully to pry open the cash register with a scissors after shooting Mrs. Pichon. She was alone in the store.

Eyer worked for the Penn-Dixie Truck Lines of York, Pa., and was taking a truckload of rice to York.

PITTSBURGH (AP)—Mrs. Helen C. Watson, worthy grand matron of the grand chapter of Pennsylvania, order of Eastern Star, was honored Monday at a luncheon as the delegates arrived for the annual convention.

A pre-convention divine service attracted a capacity attendance Sunday night at the First Presbyterian Church.

The annual banquet is scheduled this evening. Officers will be elected Wednesday. They will be installed at the closing convention session Friday night.

Amish To Refuse Old Age Benefits

WASHINGTON (AP)— Members of the Amish sect have asked Congress to exempt them from the old age survivors insurance provisions of the social security law because of religious scruples.

In a statement to the House Ways and Means Committee Monday, the group quoted scripture, including this passage from first Timothy:

"But if any provide not for his own, and especially for those of his own house, he hath denied the faith and is worse than an infidel."

The statement was read by Bishop Henry N. Miller of Middlebury, Ind. Signers included David J. Fisher, Benjamin M. Kauffman, and Jacob R. Beiler, all of Christiana, Pa., and Henry Z. Fisher of Paradise, Pa.

DETROIT (AP) — Joseph W. Bobo, 22, was sentenced to 15 months to 4 years in prison at his own request. Bobo, who pleaded guilty to a shoplifting charge, asked to go to prison in order "to pull myself together and get some religion. Prison might do me some good."

DALLAS (AP) — Dr. Umphrey Lee, 65, chancellor emeritus of Southern Methodist University, died Monday of a cerebral hemorrhage. He served as president of SMU from 1938 until he resigned in 1954 and became chancellor. He resigned as chancellor this year. He was born in Oakland City, Ind.

CLAIMS BURKE NOT REBUKED

WASHINGTON (AP) — Secretary of Defense McElroy says he can disagree with a service chief's testimony on defense reorganization without rebuking the officer involved.

He disclaimed Sunday any such intention in saying earlier he was disappointed at what he called the regrettable stand taken before the Senate Armed Services Committee last wek by Adm. Arligh A. Burke, chief of naval operations. Burke had expressed reservations about some pa ts of the reorganization plan.

McElroy first psoke out in response to newsmens' questions during a press conference Saturday at the Quantico, Va., Marine base. The occasion was the annual meeting of the top uniformed and civilian leaders of the Defense Department.

Issues Statement

But before the conference ended Sunday, McElroy got out a statement describing as incorrect any idea that what he said about Burke's testimony "constituted a rebuke to Adm. Burke." He added: "The secretary can be disappointed, and he can regret parts of an office 's testimony without it being anything more than that."

McElroy's press aides also emphasized that at his news conference the defense secretary had described Burke as a fine officer and had said he had no plans for changing Burke's assignment.

Dick Sleichter Wins Pennsylvania Open Golf Tournament With A 142

Gettysburg Country Club Pro Defeats Field Of 130 Monday Despite Five Penalty Strokes

Dick Sleichter, husky, easy going, modest, 40-year-old Gettysburg Country Club golf professional, won the 42nd annual Pennsylvania Open golf tournament Monday by mastering the two courses at Hershey and a field of 130 players.

Sleichter who picked up a $750 check for his triumphant rounds claimed his putter brought him home as he finished his second round.

Monday morning he toured the tricky 6,055-yard park course in one-under par 70 and after lunch recorded another one-under 72 at the sprawling 6,690-yard country club for a 36-hole total of 142.

The defending Philadelphia PGA champion garnered nine birdie putts and nailed an eagle-three with another fine putt in his excellent performance. It marked the second competitive golf tournament he played this year.

Sleichter stormed across the back nine of the country club, firing a two-under 35 to the delight of the gallery, which included his wife, Louise.

Five-Foot Putt

As he finished the 16th hole he needed only two pars to win. On the 17th he wound up with a birdie on a sharp five-foot putt and on the 18th nearly got another but the ball broke two inches below the hole from 20 feet away.

Sleichter said he was bothered with a "crick in his back," but this didn't appear to interfere as he birdied five holes, four in a row on the park course and then climaxed the performance with an eagle-three on the 465-yard 18th.

The Gettysburg pro finished only one stroke under the tourney record of 141. This was due to five penalty strokes which occurred when he teed two shots out of bounds and another in the creek.

Two Tie For Second

Mike Rooney, Cool Creek, and Dale Andreason, Westmoreland, tied for second with 144, even par for the 36 holes. Andreason played steady golf on both courses. Rooney matched Sleichter's one-under par performance on the park course but went one over on the other half of the tourney at the country club.

Bob Davies and Dr. Donald Wickerham, two amateurs from the Gettysburg Club, entered the amateur class with fine results. Davies carded a 78-79-157 while Wickerham netted a 78-80-158 for a evenly matched affair. John Guenther of Hershey won the amateur event with a 147.

Open Golf Champion

Dick Sleichter, Gettysburg Country Club professional, gets a hug from his wife after he won the Pennsylvania Open golf title with a two-under par 142 Monday at Hershey. Sleichter, a frequent golfing companion of President Eisenhower, posted a 70 in the morning round and a 72 in the afternoon to win the title and $750 first-place money. (AP Photo)

MOORE HURLS 3-HITTER FOR SOX SHUTOUT

CHICAGO (AP) — "My guys ain't hitting."

With that terse statement Manager Casey Stengel summed up the situation after his New York Yankees were blanked by right-hander Ray Moore in a 2-0 loss to the Chicago White Sox Monday night.

It was the fourth time in the last nine games the Yankees had been whitewashed. It was the fifth time this season they had been held scoreless compared to only two shutouts pitched against them last year.

"Our guy (Whitey Ford) pitched good ball. He made only one mistake," said Stengel. "That other guy (Moore) didn't make any. He was real good, even better than when he beat us at New York."

Held To 3 Hits

Moore, who whipped the yankees earlier this month, handcuffed the American League champions on three hits — one a bunt single. It was his fourth victory against one loss and the sixth shutout by Sox pitchers in the last nine games.

While the Sox, hoping to sweep the four-game series from New York in order to get back into the pennant, took their victory calmly, Stengel was groaning in the Yankee clubhouse.

"We're not hitting, we're not hitting," he repeated. "Nobody's taking advantage of our slump so we're still pretty well out in front (7½ games) but we'd better snap out of it. I got a lot of guys I can move around.

Cut tomatoes in half and bake in a hot oven; arrange on buttered hot toast and top with cheese sauce and crisp bacon.

Fans To Help Pick All-Star Ice Team

HERSHEY, Pa. — Hershey hockey fans will be given an opportunity of helping to select members of the All-Star team which will face their own defending Calder Cup champion Bears next January 15 at the Sports Arena.

General Manager Lloyd S. Blinco, just returned from the American Hockey League meeting in New England, revealed that ways and means of having the fans of all six league cities take part in the balloting are now being drawn up by a committee of AHL executives.

$800 Hurler Wins For Braves 7 To 0

MILWAUKEE (AP)—Carl Willey, shy, 27-year-old right-hander paid the world champion Milwaukee Braves their first dividend Monday night on an investment of $800.

The Braves paid him that sum to sign with their organization in 1951 when scout Jeff Jones spotted the diminutive fast-ball pitcher at a New England try - out camp.

In his first major league start, Willey shut out the San Francisco Giants 7-0 on six hits, three of them by rookie Leon Wagner.

Druggist's Son Wins Amateur Journey

HUTCHINSON, Kan. (AP) — Jack Nicklaus, cocky young son of a Columbus, Ohio druggist, won the Trans - Mississippi Amateur Golf Tournament Sunday with a 9 and 8 victory over Richard Norville of Oklahoma City.

It wasn't much of a match. Nicklaus, 18, smacked the ball 300 to 325 yards down the fairways—usually 20 to 50 yards farther than Norville — and followed up with good putts to completely outplay his opponent.

The Ohioan shot the last 20 holes in even par, and he was only three over regulation for the 28 holes it took to defeat the Oklahoman.

Mummasburg moved into a second place tie by edging Cashtown 2-1 in a well-played game on the winner's diamond.

"Bud" Riley, Mummasburg, gave up only three hits and the lone run scored off him came in the final inning when he walked a batter with the bases loaded and two out. The next batter fanned to end the threat.

Jason Goulden, Cashtown pitcher, yielded but four hits, two each to D. Bowling and L. Knipple. Goulden fanned 11 and Riley nine.

Gettysburg Big Little Loop

Greg Maitland, one of the most versatile ball players in the Gettysburg Big Little League, proved his ability as he not only hit and scored the only run, but also tossed a near perfect no-hit, no-run game as the Legion defeated the Elks 1-0 in the top game of the year, Monday evening. The win enabled to Legion to move into third place while dropping the Elks to last place.

In the top of the first inning, with two out, Maitland blasted a triple to deep left-center and, on the wild throw from the outfield, came home with the only run of the game.

On the mound Maitland went seven innings without allowing a single hit. He struck out 11 men and didn't give up a walk. Two errors allowed the only two Elks base runners, who were cut down by a top Legion defense.

"Doc" Fissel, returning to the line for the first time this season in an Elk uniform due to a preseason injury, proved he is as strong as last season. Fissel gave up three scattered hits, one walk and struck out 10 men to turn the ball game into a real pitchers' duel. Manager John Toggas has plenty to look forward to in the coming games with Fissel back in the line-up.

Big Little League president Glenn Harner announced that the rained out game between the Blue Ridge and Eagles will be played this evening at 6 o'clock. He also announced that there will be an important meeting of the Big Little League Wednesday evening at 8 o'clock at the Legion home. All managers and officials are asked to be present.

BRAVES CALL ON ROOKIE WILLEY TO TRIM GIANTS

By THE ASSCOIATED PRESS

Your ace has lost three in a row. Your World Series hero is stumbling along with a 5-5 record. Your most consistent winner is on the disabled list and your pitching staff has come through with only one nine-inning complete game in more than three weeks. You should be dead.

Instead, the Milwaukee Braves reached down to the minors and pulled out a plum named Carleton Willey, a big right-hander who won 21 at Wichita last season. He was the toast of the dozen or so kid pitchers who crowded the spring camp. But come cutdown time and he was shipped back to Wichita.

Now, with Warren Spahn slumping, Lew Burdette at .500 for 10 decisions and Bob Buhl ailing, Willey was called back, and he came back big — pitching a six-hit shutout in his first major league start and beating second-place San Francisco 7-0 Monday night.

Giants In Danger

That bounced the Giants 2½ games behind and in danger of being overhauled by St. Louis and Cincinnati. The Cardinals tied the Redlegs for third place, a game behind San Francisco, with a 7-5 victory over Pittsburgh while Cincy was disposing of Los Angeles 6-1. Those were the only games scheduled.

The Pirates built a 3-0 lead against the Cards, then blew it with five errors, three by Ted Kluszewski. Curt Flood had four hits for St. Louis.

Brooks Lawrence (5-3) won his fourth in a row for the Redlegs, going all the way with a six-hitter while Cincy handed Johnny Podres his sixth defeat. Singles by Gus Bell and Roy McMillan, a sacrifice by Lawrence and Johnny Temple's single scored the tie-breaking runs in a two-run fifth.

Gettysburg Softball Loop

The W-L Warehouse team of Biglerville took over second place in the local softball league Monday evening by defeating the VFW in another fine pitchers' battle 3-2. The teams had been tied for second place.

Each team secured but five hits as Waddell, the winning hurler, and Clarence Dorm, loser, battled on even terms practically the entre game.

The first forfeit of the season took place when the News Agency was unable to field a team for the first scheduled game with the Hess Antiques.

Tonight Inland Container opposes the Elks at 7 o'clock and Table Rock clashes with the Vets in the second game.

GONZALES-HOAD CLASH TONIGHT

FOREST HILLS, N.Y. (AP) — Pancho Gonzales plays Lew Hoad tonight in the Tournament of Champions. But there's nothing at stake except their competitive pride and the pro tennis king's remarkable record in New York.

Checked on the last time he's lost a match either here or in Madison Square Garden, Gonzales admitted "I guess I haven't lost here since the 1951 tournament when Pancho Segura beat me."

Since 1951, Gonzales figured he's won 15 matches — including the five that assure him the $3,000 first prize in the current round-robin. Gonzales stopped Australian Frank Sedgman by 10-8, 6-2, Monday night, to clinch top money when Hoad lost to his former Australian Davis Cup buddy, Ken Rosewall, 6-2, 8-6 for a 3-2 record.

Rosewall completed the six-match round-robin with a 5-1 record, taking the runnerup $2,000 prize. Tony Trabert stopped Rex Hartwig, 6-2, 8-6 to finish third with a 4-2 record for $1,750.

In tonight's opener, Sedgman faces Pancho Seguara of Ecuador to decide the $1,250 fifth -place money.

Gonzales and Rosewall will team against Trabert and Sedgman to settle the $1,500 doubles prize.

Gettysburg Little League

The Lions, battling to retain its hold onto second place, managed to move in behind the Rotary in the Little League standings by edging a tough Moose outfit, 4-0, Monday evening on the Recreation Field.

Lion hurler Eddie Tilberg was the lad who did the trick as he fanned five men and gave up only two hits, facing 19 batters, to gain his first win in two decisions. Tom Whittinghill, still trying to find his mark and settle down on his control, gave up nine hits and walked seven men to sustain his third setback in as many starts.

The Lions forged ahead in the first frame with a quick tally on Tilberg's single to center, a walk to Dan King, another safety by Gene Schultz and a wild pitch allowing Tilberg to score.

The winners tallied three runs to clinch the game in the fourth. Jim Newman and Tilberg singled while Bill Eden, Barry Sease and Mike Boyer drew walks and wild pitches again permitted two runners to cross the plate easily.

The Moose had men on base in four of the six innings but none could pass secod due to the fine fielding performance of the Lions. Barry Sease started a snappy double play that cooled off a scoring threat

Ron Miller and Chris Richardson collected the only two Moose hits while Gene Schultz blasted out three safeties for four trips to the plate for the Lions.

MOORE BLANKS YANKEES 2 TO 0 ON THREE HITS

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

The Chicago White Sox finally have put Manager Al Lopez's formula for success to work: If you can't score many runs yourself don't let the other guy score any at all.

It sounds tough, but that's just what the Sox pitching staff has been doing lately. Ray Moore loaded another shutout on the American League-leading New York Yankees Monday night with a three-hitter that gave Chicago a 2-0 victory and a share of fourth place.

Moore, another profit in that power-for-pitching trade plan put into effect by the Sox last winter, hadn't pitched a shutout in a year, but he helped boost Chicago's whitewash total to six in nine games.

A's And Tigers Win

The second-place Kansas City A's whipped Washington 7-2 and retained their one-game lead over the third-place Detroit Tigers, who defeated Baltimore 3-1 in th only other game scheduled.

The A's counted three home runs, one Bob Cerv's 19th to tie Boston's Jackie Jensen for the AL lead. Little Murry Dickson won his fifth with a seven-hitter. He had a shutout until the seventh, then gave up home runs to Norm Zauchin and Roy Sievers. Bill Tuttle and Hector Lopez also homered for the A's.

George Susce, late of Boston, won his first for Detroit in his first complete game since Sept. 25, 1955, when he beat the Yankees. The lone Oriole run came in the sixth on Gus Triandos' 15th homer. Gail Harris homered off loser Arnie Portocarrero (4-5) for a 1-0 Tiger lead in the second inning. Al Kaline's sacrifice fly made it 2-0 in the third and he then tripled and scored on a passed ball in the eighth.

Littlestown Little League

The second-place Vets pulled to within half a game of the league-leading Giants Monday evening by blanking the front-running squad 2-0 in a snappy game.

F. Snyder of the Vets and B. Smith of the Giants hooked up in a pretty hurling duel which was scoreless until the bottom of the fifth when the Vets tabbed both of their runs. Snyder yielded but one hit, a single by J. Bowersox, and whiffed eight. Smith gave up only three safeties, one a double by F. Arbogast, and struck out nine.

Tonight the Lions and Eagles meet.

ASKS PROBE OF GERALD MORGAN ON IKE'S STAFF

WASHINGTON (AP) — Rep. Morgan Moulder (D-Mo) suggested Monday that House investigators call Gerald D. Morgan, President Eisenhower's special counsel, saying: "From what I hear, Mr. Morgan is more of a front man than Mr. Adams."

Moulder said in an interview he understands Morgan is more accessible than Sherman Adams to persons seeking help from the White House. Moulder did not go into detail.

A House subcommittee, of which Moulder is a member, resumes hearings today on contacts admittedly made by Adams, Eisenhower's top assistant, with two regulatory agencies on behalf of Bernard Goldfine, a millionaire Boston industrialist.

Ike Standing Firm

Adams, the center of a growing political storm, acknowledged accepting hotel hospitality and gifts from Goldfine, who he said is an old friend. Although conceding he was imprudent, Adams has denied seeking or getting any favored treatment for Goldfine, who was having troubles with the Federal Trade Commission and the Securities and Exchange Commission.

There was no sign Eisenhower has changed his stated intention to retain Adams, whom he has described as a man of honesty and integrity.

But that didn't stem the rising volume of demands that Adams step down. Some of the strongest demands have come from Republicans.

Morgan Made Contact

Counsel Morgan, who has figured indirectly in the Adams case, appeared as Adams' legal adviser when Adams appeared before the subcommittee last Tuesday.

Adams has informed the subcommittee that at his request, Morgan made contact with the SEC to obtain information about a matter involving Goldfine.

He said Goldfine complained to him about some SEC actions in the case of the East Boston Co., a Goldfine holding firm accused of not filing required financial reports in 1948-1955.

Adams said Morgan obtained the information from Thomas C. Meeker, SEC's general counsel, but asked for no favors. The information was not passed on to Goldfine, Adams said, and Meeker was not informed of Adams' interest in it.

The SEC said last week it pressed the East Boston case even after the White House inquiry. The Goldfine holding company was fined $3,000 and is now filing the required reports on schedule, SEC said.

Rep. Oren Harris (D-Ark), chairman of the investigating subcommittee, declined to say definitely whether Adams might be recalled for further testimony. He said Adams would be asked to return if "conditions and circumstances arise that make it necessary or advisable."

Harris said the record developed so far shows that Goldfine received preferential treatment from both the SEC and the FTC.

A new statement came from Edward F. Howrey, former chairman of the FTC. Howrey already has denied in testimony that Goldfine got any preferred treatment in a mislabeling case against a Goldfine woolen mill in 1953-1954.

Howrey said the question of Goldfine's mill never came before him for decision, adding: "At no time did I have occasion to tell anyone of the staff or on the commission that Gov. Adams had inquired about the matter."

Democratic National Chairman Paul M. Butler described the situation as "the Sherman Adams mess" and said influence peddling "has generally been defended and rewarded, even by the President himself."

But Republican National Chairman Meade Alcorn said Adams is being made "the victim of political persecution of unexampled viciousness."

SAY NEGROES "OUTRAGED"

WASHINGTON (AP) — Four Negro leaders Monday told President Eisenhower that court - ordered suspension of school integration at Little Rock, Ark., has shocked and outraged Negro citizens and millions of their fellow Americans

At a White House conference with Eisenhower, the Negroes said the court decision handed down last weekend is being construed, rightly or wrongly, as a green light to lawless elements in their defiance of federal authority.

The views of the Negro leaders were set forth in a prepared statement, which was handed to newsmen after their 45-minute meeting with the President.

A. Philip Randolph, president of the International Brotherhood of Sleeping Car Porters, said at a news conference that Eisenhower made no comment on the court ruling by U.S. Dist. Judge Harry Lemley.

Randolph added that neither did Eisenhower make any promise nor commitments with respect to a nine-point program offered by the Negro leaders with a view to improving the conditions of their people.

REPORT REVEALS U. S. EDUCATION NEEDS REFORM

WASHINGTON (AP) — A two-year study concludes that a full-scale reform movement is needed to raise American education standards to the needs of modern times.

A report by the Rockefeller Brothers Fund, Inc., called Sunday night for immediate and far-reaching changes in the natio,'s educational system—not just more money.

The report echoed oft-repeated statements that American schools are overcrowded, understaffed and ill-equipped. It said the basic problem is one of providing more money but that other things must be done too.

Report Suggests Steps

The report suggested these steps:

1. Testing and guidance procedures must be strengthened to push along more talented students who may be held back by average or slow groups.

2. Some educational problems "gravely affecting the national interest" may require a helping hand from the federal government.

3. National leaders must grasp the scope of the job that lies ahead.

"Perhaps the greatest problem facing American education is the widely held view that all we require are a few more teachers, a few more buildings, a little more money," said the report.

The crisis in science education, the report said, "is not an invention of the newspapers, or scientists or the Pentagon. It is a real crisis."

It has all been brought about, the group said, by man's swift plunge into a new technological era that is bringing changes "so startling as to test to the utmost our adaptive capacities, our stability and our wisdom."

RED MOB STONES WEST GERMANS

MOSCOW (AP) — More than 1,000 banner-waving demonstrators attacked the West German Embassy with stones, sticks and ink bottles Monday in realiation for an assault on the Soviet Embassy in Bonn last week.

U.S. newsmen, including this correspondent, were roughed up several times as they attempted to take pictures.

The demonstrators marched toward the Embassy from several directions. They seemed well organized. Suddenly they started throwing stones and bricks, smashing Embassy windows by the dozen.

Then came a barrage of ink bottles that splattered bright blue ink on the gray Embassy walls. Some of the bottles sailed through broken windows and crashed on the floor inside

The crowd was in a vicious mood.

NEW DOCUMENTS OPEN GALINDEZ KIDNAPING CASE

NEW YORK (AP)—The Justice Department has documents in the handwriting of Gerald Lester Murphy, an American flier, connecting him with the disappearance of Dr. Jesus de Galindez, the New York Times said today.

The newspaper said in a Washington dispatch that State Department consular officials found the documents in a steel file in Murphy's apartment in Ciudad Trujillo, capital of the Dominican Republic.

The Times said the documents were found after Murphy's own disappearance Dec. 3, 1956.

Galindez, a Columbia University lecturer and a critic of Dominican dictator Rafael Trujillo, disappeared in New York City March 12, 1956. Charges have been made that he was kidnaped, and later flown to the Dominican Republic by Murphy.

Murphy vanished in Ciudad Trujillo. Later, the Dominican government announced that he had been murdered by a Dominican pilot, who then committed suicide.

Morris L. Ernst, a New York lawyer, was engaged by the Trujillo government to investigate Galindez's disappearance.

Ernst and a colleague issued a report that rejected the charge that Murphy had flown Galindez to the Dominican Republic. In effect, the report cleared Trujillo of any part in Galindez's disappearance.

The Times said the documents offer apparent contradictions of theories advanced Ernst.

Sunday night Ernst stood by his report.

Mrs. John J. Dillon Jr. will attend the meeting of the American Home Economics Association in Philadelphia this week.

Michael Kelz, son of Mr. and Mrs. William A. Kelz, has reported to duty with the Air Force in Texas.

REVENUE AGENTS SEIZE $55,000

PHILADELPHIA (AP)—Internal Revenue agents disclosed Monday they seized $55,000 hidden in the home of a Pottsville, Pa., man who seven years ago tried to redeem $250,000. in moldy money he said he had buried in his backyard.

Daniel Tucker, chief of the Intelligence Division of the Philadelphia office of the Revenue Service, said the money found Saturday night in a raid on the home of Peter Joseph, 46, probably represented "the entire bank of the numbers business in Schuylkill County."

Two raids were made by 18 revenue agents, Tucker said, and more than 250,000 numbers slips were found.

Besides the Joseph home, the agents also went into a cigar store operated by Edward Sadool, located opposite the Schuylkill County Courthouse. Sadool and another man, Joseph Sophy, were arrested on gambling charges. Both will get a hearing Thursday in Reading before a U. S. commissioner.

Strikers Publish Philadelphia Paper

PHILADELPHIA (AP)—A new newspaper appeared on the stands Monday, published by striking Guild employes of the Philadelphia Inquirer.

Called the Philadelphia Citizen, the 14-page tabloid contains local news and advertising and sells at 10 cents a copy. It was distributed to newstands by truck drivers who struck the Inquirer and the Philadelphia Bulletin 24 days ago.

Both the Inquirer and the Bulletin have continued publishing, but the papers can be purchased only at the plants.

FARMER KILLED

ASHLAND, Pa. (AP) — A 68-year-old farmer was killed Friday when his car overturned on Route 122.

John Schuey of Ashland R. 1, died in Ashland State Hospital some 10 hours after motorists found him on the highway. Police said he apparently was driving down the mountain road from Centralia when a tire blew and the car went out of control.

Polish Reds Ready Nagy Death Protest

WARSAW (AP) — The Polish Communist party today was reported ready to protest within the inner circles of the Communist bloc against the execution of Imre Nagy and other leaders of the Hungarian revolt.

There appeared no likelihood, however, that Polish party leader Wladyslaw Gomulka would make a public complaint that would bring Moscow's wrath down on him.

Informants said Gomulka's opposition to the executions was made clear in private speeches by Foreign Minister Adam Rapacki and Roman Zambrowski, both members of the Polish Politburo.

Five Properties Are Transferred

The following deeds have been filed in the office of the register and recorder:

Georgie S. Remmel, Gettysburg, sold to David B. and Eva Grace Gorman, Cumberland Twp., a property in Cumberland Twp., or $400.

Don C. and Nettie V. Walter, Cumberland Twp., sold to Paul S. and Mary S. Burkholder, Gettysburg, a property in Cumberland Twp., for $1,800.

Harold and Alice H. Hemsley, Biglerville, sold to Ivan A. and Betty L. Feaster, Gettysburg R. 2, 103 acres in Butler Twp. for $9,750.

Grace M. Bittle, Conewago Twp., sold to Blain and Mary M. Kauffman, Taneytown R. 1, a property in Conewago Twp. for $9,000.

Paul S. and Joanna G. Hare, Butler Twp., sold to Raymond E. and Mary A. Fidler, Butler Twp., a property in Butler Twp. for $460.20.

HARRISBURG (AP)—Hampden Twp., Cumberland County, residents have voted down a proposal to establish a local police force.

The board of supervisors Sunday night announced that 888 residents voted against the proposal and 620 voted for it in the mail referendum. About 3,000 taxpayers were eligible to vote.

The cost of maintaining a police force was estimated at $11,000 a year.

WILKES-BARRE, Pa. (AP) — The Pennsylvania Department of the Jewish War Veterans was on record today urging federal punishment of persons responsible for bombings of synagogues and Negro schools.

DEMOCRATS MAKE IT TOUGH FOR GOP THEME

WASHINGTON (AP) — Members from both parties apparently are making it difficult for Republicans to build up the campaign theme that President Eisenhower needs a GOP Congress to get his legislative program approved.

The contention that the Democrats in Congress are hamstringing the President's proposals has been one of the main talking points of GOP National Chairman Meade Alcorn. Eisenhower himself used practically the same argument in an informal talk to the GOP state chairmen last Thursday.

But the Democrats and the Republicans are marking up a voting record in Congress that seems unlikely to sustain the GOP campaign argument.

For instance unless all the signs fail, Senate Democrats will have to furnish the lion's share of votes if Eisenhower's request for a five-year extension of the Reciprocal Trade Agreements Act is approved.

Just as Republicans provided much of the opposition in the House, so the Senate finds its two top Republican leaders aligned against Eisenhower.

Senators Styles Bridges (R-HN) and William F. Knowland (R-Calif) are leading a drive to cut the extension to three years. Bridges heads the party policy committee and Knowland is minority floor leader.

On the other hand, some of those counted among the strongest GOP supporters of the trade program voted against many of the administration's amendments to the labor regulation bill the Senate has passed. These included senators Clifford P. Case (R-NJ), John S. Cooper (R-Ky), Irving Ives (R-NY), Jacob K. Javits (R-NY) and Edward J. Thye (R-Minn).

WORLD ON WHEELS

By Floyd Clymer

The sale of imported cars in the U. S. is definitely on the increase and apparently Detroit doesn't know exactly what to do about it.

Officials of the "Big Three" are divided in opinion as to whether or not they should import cars built in other lands or attempt to produce lighter and smaller cars in their own U. S. plants.

The Ford Motor Company recently announced that they would start importing six models of their German-built Taunus. This small 4-cylinder 102-inch wheelbase model is to be sold by Mercury, Edsel and Lincoln dealers. Ford will continue to import 14 of their British-built Fords which had a satisfactory sale in this country.

Plan Lighter Cars

It is no secret that Detroit engineers are working out production details of smaller and lighter cars. Of the "Big Three" the Chrysler Corporation alone is the only one having no imported car to offer their dealers. Studebaker-Packard has Mercedes-Benz, and American Motors import the Austin-built Metropolitan.

The imported car has brought about many changes in the automotive industry throughout the world. Recently the Australian Government has approved a plan for the manufacture of Willys 4-wheel drive vehicles in that country. About 30% of the parts used will be of Australian manufacture. Ownership of the company will be approximately 50% Australian capital.

New Jap Car

Japan is also getting into the U. S. market, and has recently announced a new miniature car—the Subaru-360—manufactured by the Fuji Company of Tokyo, with a selling price of approximately $1,050.00.

Even in Holland the Dutch are going all out with a new small 2-cylinder DAF with twin-belt drive and an automatic transmission—this company also manufacturers quality trucks.

Another new import will be the Peugeot-403 from France. Peugeot is an old name in the world of motoring, having won many famous races throughout the world in past years. Through arrangement with the French Government and the Renault factory, the new "403" model coming into the U. S. for the first time will be distributed and sold through Renault dealers.

The increase in popularity of imported cars is causing a great deal of controversy and the arguments for and against their sale in this country is dividing opinion of U. S. car dealers. Some U. S. dealers are taking on imported makes to supplement their income and to take care of the increasing market for the smaller, lighter car. Other dealers are concerned, and one California dealer recently "pushed the panic button" by running a full page ad in a metropolitan newspaper giving his reasons why the U. S.-built car is a better buy than any imported car. He even claimed that U. S. dollars being spent for imported cars were actually putting Americans out of work—that imported car parts were hard to secure—that his make of U. S. car offered more comfort and almost as much economy.

Two Sides To Story

In a lengthy letter appearing in the "Letters to the Editor" column of a Los Angeles newspaper, still another concerned person bemoaned the fact that imported cars were responsible for the drop in sale of U. S. makes. There are of course two sides to every story.

The sale of imported cars certainly has not been responsible for the slump in the sale of our own makes. There are many reasons why this is so. Some buyers do not buy on price, and the smaller imported car with its economy, ease of parking and distinction suits many buyers better than the larger U. S. cars. Even at the same price, there are thousands who want a smaller car than U. S. makers offer.

Then again, the garage problem is one of extreme importance. Recently a neighbor of mine selected one make of car, only to find that it was too long to go in his garage and therefore he purchased a make of his second choice. I often wonder just how many sales of U. S. makes of cars have been lost because the car is too long to fit into the prospect's garage.

Only 20,075 Sales

Of 333,580 new cars sold in the United States in February, sales of imported cars of all makes accounted for 20,075 of this number. In dollar volume the total must have been at least as high for U. S.-built cars as for imported cars. It is, therefore, obvious that imported car sales to not have much effect on the economy of this nation, or the present slump in the automotive field.

The imported car dealers pay rent, buy advertising, support local civic activities and charities. Imported car owners buy gas, oil, tires, as well as numerous other items, all of which contribute to U. S. economy in addition to the U. S. government import duty of 10%. Countries in which imported cars are built actually buy more merchandise from the U. S. than we do from their countries. President Eisenhower and our government officials also feel that buying of some foreign merchandise is important to U. S. economy.

"Real Clincher"

But here is the real clincher. During 1957 imported car sales (of all makes) accounted for less than 5% of the total car sales in the U. S. A. As of March 1 the percentage was 5.2, and it has since risen to 6% of total sales.

An interesting observation is that Chevrolet, in only eight weeks, can and has produced more automobiles and trucks than the combined total of all makes of imported cars and trucks sold in this country for the entire year of 1957. In the first three months of 1958 our leading producer, Chevrolet, manufactured 393,867 units. This is approximately 175,000 more units than the estimated U. S. sales of all makes of imported cars for the entire year of 1958.

Here's Advice For Women Drivers

By Jeanne Smith, Safety Consultant

Not long ago, during a visit to Los Angeles, I pulled into a service station and asked the attendant to check the water and oil. As usual, I got out of the car to watch as he checked under the hood.

Miss Smith

He looked at me in surprise and said, "This is the first time I've ever seen a lady get out of her car while it's being checked Men almost always do—and women should."

A few questions brought some good advice from him. I think it will be of interest to most women since so many own cars or are responsible for the upkeep of the family automobile.

Improve Service

"By getting out of the car, you get more service and you can see a trouble spot or worn part that an attendant might want to point out.

"Most women don't know what all the gauges and warning lights on the instrument panel mean," he said "They should know the car is overheating or when the oil is low — and heed these warnings immediately.

"Women need to be reminded to have the battery checked periodically, too. What I notice more, though, is the number of batteries and battery cables that need to be cleaned because of corrosion. Corroded cables can really knock down the performance of a car. But you have to look under that hood to notice it. Many attendants aren't likely to mention it or volunteer to clean it off.

Check Brakes

"Brakes are another thing," he said. "Some women must think they last forever, but I have cars come in with the brake pedal right down to the floor.

"You know," he added, "a lot of men, particularly salesmen, keep a record of checks and repairs made on their cars. This is a good idea for women drivers, too."

"Can't you put in a good word for us, anywhere?" I asked hopefully.

Fussy About Exterior

"Sure he replied, with a grin. "Women, as a rule, keep their windshields cleaner than men do. They're fussy about their windshield wipers, and they're forever having the tires checked.

"One more thing," he said, as I started my car, "I've never had a woman ask to have the fluid in the automatic transmission checked, and that should be done every time you have the oil changed.

"But I must admit," he concluded, "there are some women who know a lot about cars — and few men who can even boil an egg!"

Shell Gas Is Given Test

"Boy, my wife put one over on me the other day! We were out driving and we had to stop for gas —so my wife says, 'Let's go to that Shell station on Steinwehr Ave.' Naturally, I wondered why my wife, who knows nothing about cars except white walls and convertibles, was pushing Shell. She told me she got it from Roy Thomas, the man who runs that Shell station.

"And she says 'Super Shell with TCP add anti-miss to anti-knock.' And she gave me the whole pitch—told me about spark plug miss stealing engine power, harmful deposits building up on the plugs, and how Super Shell with TCP keeps your engine from knocking and stops spark plug miss. Well, we drive up to Thomas Shell Service station and get Super Shell with TCP. And it's made a difference already! My wife says I ought to use the money I'm saving to buy her a hat. Well, it's worth a new hat to know about Super Shell with TCP."

Roy E. Thomas, 29, who owns and operates the Shell Service Station on Steinwehr Ave., attended Biglerville High School. Prior to opening the new Shell station he acquired 12 years of mechanical experience at various places in Biglerville and Gettysburg. Six full-time and two part-time employes competently handle the motorists who stop at Thomas Shell Station on Steinwehr Ave.

THE DRIVER'S SEAT

Learning to see ourselves as others see us is often a revealing experience.

When an entire community does it, there's bound to be some surprising results—particularly when 15,858 people are put under the microscope to determine what sort of a collective traffic safety personality they present to the world.

This is exactly what happened to the populace of Holland, Michigan, recently. The side of Holland's personality the world best knows is its fame as host of the annual Tulip Festival, an attraction that draws tourists from all over the nation.

But Holland wanted to know who was getting into auto accidents and where and when and why. The community believed the answers to these questions would provide a blueprint for improvement of its collective safety personality.

To get the answers Holland called in traffic experts from the Auto Club of Michigan to conduct a comprehensive community survey. The club researchers spent a summer ranging up and down the city streets, analyzing 625 local accidents, standing on street corners counting traffic and watching driver reaction to signs and signals.

The result of all this fine toothcombing was a 105-page report to city and civic leaders containing a four-point program for improvements of local traffic conditions. It also contained specifics, street by street, of what had to be done.

Although the specifics of the program apply solely to Holland, every community could take its traffic safety cue from the general recommendations:

1. Install adequate signs and signals and removed parking at critical areas of high accidents intersections. Remove out-moded stop signs and replace them with the new standard red, reflective version that can be seen at night.
2. Inaugurate a community-wide

9 ARRESTED IN DEMONSTRATION AGAINST REDS

NEW YORK (AP) — Hungarian refugees demonstrating outside headquarters of the Soviet delegation to the United Nations Sunday tried to crash through police lines and trampled several policemen.

The demonstrators smashed three windows of the Park Avenue building. Seven policemen and a number of pickets were injured, none seriously.

The violent outbreak came, police said, at what appeared to be a prearranged signal. It turned into a melee between 350 pickets and nearly 100 policemen. Nine pickets were arrestd.

The demonstrators had been pacefully marching and handing out leaflets of the Federation of Former Hungarian Political Prisoners before the violence erupted.

This was the second outbreak of violence at the Manhattan building over the weekend. Anti-Soviet pickets broke two windows Saturday and three arrests followed.

Protest Executions

Both demonstrations were to protest the execution of former Hungarian Premier Imre Nagy and three of his associates, announced in Moscow last week. Nagy and the others were leaders of the Hungarian revolt of 1956.

Seven pickets arrested on disorderly conduct charges received suspended sentences after pleading guilty in night court.

They received a warning from Magistrate Vincent J. Ferreri to "Follow the American way of life."

Two other pickets were held for arraignment on felonious assault charges. They are Geza Horvath, 19, of Queens, and Barna Sarossy, 23, of East Orange, N.J.

In Ottawa, Canada about 320 Hungarian refugees splattered the Soviet Embassy with red ink as they paraded in protest of the executions of Nagy and his associates.

MISSING PAIR FOUND IN HOTEL

KEARNY, N. J. (AP)—A pretty high school girl and her teen-age boy friend were back in their separate homes today after a 10-day stay in a Southern hotel.

Helen Jones, 16, and David Horne, 17, parted at a detention home in Petersburg, Va., Sunday with an embrace, a kiss and a whispered vow.

Then, in turn, they were taken in tow by their shocked parents.

The youngsters had been the object of a 13-state police alarm since last June 11, when they disappeared from their New Jersey homes.

The blonde girl and her handsome boy friend had met at the Second Presbyterian Church in Newark and had been going together for more than a year. David was an Explorer Scout at the church. His scoutmaster was Francis Jones, Helen's father.

Police found the couple registered as man and wife in a Petersburg hotel.

"We love each other," they told authorities.

Their youth had prevented them from carrying out their plan to get married, they said.

"I Need Him"

Urge Churchmen To Enter Into Politics

COLLEGEVILLE, Pa. (AP)—A conference of 150 lay leaders of the United Church of Christ ended Sunday after urging more active participation in politics by Christians.

The conferees from Pennsylvania and other states drafted a statement telling church members to see that "political life does not become an area of corrupt, evil influence, of self-seeking, of demagoguery."

They urged activity to assure "more adequate embodiment of Christian objectives in government."

WASHINGTON (AP) — Vice Adm. Robert L. Ghormley, retired, 74, commander of the Allied attack on the Japanese-held Solomon Islands during World War II, died Saturday. He had suffered from a heart condition.

HOLLYWOOD (AP) — Herbert Brenon, 78, a pioneer film director, died Saturday of a heart ailment. He was a native of Ireland.

WOULD ABOLISH FARM SYSTEM

WASHINGTON (AP)—A bill to abolish the major league baseball farm system and ban uncontrolled broadcasting of big league games was put forward Monday by Rep. Albert W. Cretella (R-Conn).

He referred to these activities as "the worst type of sports monopoly."

Cretella announced he will back these and other legislative steps to clarify the antitrust status of professional baseball, football, basketball and hockey when the House begins debating sports antitrust exemptions Tuesday.

Cretella's bill also would exempt from the antitrust laws the player reserve clause, player contracts, club territorial rights, expansion and formation of playing leagues, draft and waiver rules, and assignment of player contracts.

Under Cretella's bill, major league baseball clubs would be specifically forbidden to broadcast and televise their games into minor leagues cities when minor league clubs are playing there, unless permission is granted first.

ST. LOUIS (AP)—John T. Stinson, a horticulturist who helped popularize the slogan "An apple a day keeps the doctor away," died Saturday of infirmities. Stinson, 92, was a former director of agricultural development of the Missouri Pacific railroad. The slogan came out of an Apple Day promotion staged when he was horticultural director of the St. Louis World's Fair.

FREIGHT RAMS STOPPED TRAIN

THURMOND, W.Va. (AP) — "The brakes just wouldn't stop her," said engineer H. W. Honaker after his 144-car freight train rammed into the rear of a halted luxury passenger train on the Chesapeake and Ohio mainline.

Honaker, 68, was one of four crewmen and six passengers hospitalized after the crash. None of the passengers were seriously injured.

The passenger train, the George Washington, was en route from Newport News, Va., to Cincinnati.

Seven passenger and three freight cars were derailed.

Honaker said there were 50 cars loaded with ore at the rear of his freight, and "the ore shoved the engine."

Honaker was trapped in the cab for about two hours. Workers used torches to cut him out. He suffered a broken leg.

HANCOCK, N.H. (AP) — Sherman Adams has declined an invitation to seek the Republican gubernatorial nomination in New Hampshire's Sept. 9 primaries.

"I feel I have a job to finish here," the top presidential assistant wrote from Washington to a former federal judge who asked Adams to re-enter the political arena in his home state.

Adams served as New Hampshire governor from 1949 to 1953.

State Training Civil Engineers

HARRISBUR G(AP) — On-the-job training for 50 civil engineering graduates was underway today by the State Highways Department.

Lewis M. Stevens, highways secretary, said the program is aimed at overcoming a shortage of competent civil engineering personnel in the department.

Each of the trainees will be paid an annual salary of $5,268 during the program. At the end of the training period the engineers will get pay boosts and will be eligible for promotions.

REPORT FRANCE RED CHINA TIE

By RELMAN MORIN

PARIS (AP) — Reports circulated in Paris Monday that moves are under way to open a form of diplomatic relations between France and Communist China.

"The matter has been discussed," a Foreign Office official said, "but nothing has been decided."

The reports appeared Sunday and Monday in a number of Paris newspapers. One said no concrete steps will be taken until after the meeting in Paris July 5 between Premier de aulle and Secretary of State Dulles.

France, like the United States, does not recognize Red China. France is a member of Chincom, an organization of all North Atlantic Treaty Organization nations, except Iceland, which regulates trade with Peiping in articles of strategic importance. Japan also is a member.

Chincom is in the process of revising the strategic list and is expected to announce the changes within the next few weeks.

Paris newspapers said there is little likelihood that France will accord outright recognition to Red China.

Washington bade farewell to the officers of his army at Fraunce's Tavern in New York City.

It's time to join the fun...

This is Texas Eastern...

12 trillion cubic feet of gas on tap for tomorrow

More than 12 trillion (12,158,200,000,000) cubic feet of natural gas—under contract in hundreds of oil and gas fields—represents, as of now, Texas Eastern's reserves for the future. It is a figure that is continually being revised—upward—and for good reason.

New oil and gas fields are constantly being discovered to keep pace with ever-increasing demand for this clean, economical fuel.

Back in the company's first year, 1947, when deliveries amounted to a modest 40 billion cubic feet, reserves were estimated at 2.336 trillion cubic feet.

Today, with annual sales topping 500 billion cubic feet, reserves exceed sales by more than twenty to one.

These reserves are located in oil and gas fields in the picturesque parishes of northern and southern Louisiana, in historic East Texas... offshore in the Gulf of Mexico...in the prolific fields of South Texas...and across the border in northern Mexico.

And as new fields are found in Texas Eastern's pipeline area, gas is contracted for to meet today's needs, and tomorrow's, and those 20 years distant.

As demand has grown, Texas Eastern has widened its search for new and better natural gas sources. With what is now under contract—and what we can be certain of acquiring in the future—you can be sure that you will be able to cook with gas for a long, long time.

By EDMOND LE BRETON

WASHINGTON (AP) — The House moved today toward debate on whether professional baseball's long immunity from anti-trust laws should be ended.

The House has before it legislation to spell out how the anti-trust laws would apply to four professional team sports — baseball, football, basketball and hockey.

Baseball is most vulnerable because the Supreme Court last year said that under present law baseball is still outside the scope of the antitrust statutes. Football comes under them. There have been no recent test cases on the other sports.

Three Courses Open

The representativs, who will not vote finally on the measure before Wednesday, could take any of three courses—leave things as they are, with baseball exempt and the exact applicability of the laws to other sports doubtful; or pass either of two pending bills.

The bill officially before the House would apply the antitrust laws to the four sports insofar as their business operations are concerned, but would exempt "reasonably necessary" operations concerned with the games themselves—such as reserve clauses binding players to a particular team; territorial arrangements and the like. But they would have to be proved "reasonably necessary."

The author of this bill, Rep. Emanuel Celler (R-NY), contends at least this much restriction is necessary, or "baseball owners will do as they wish."

DOCTOR GIVEN LIFE IN MURDER

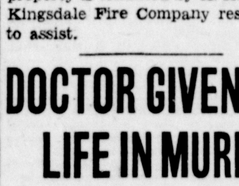

HARRISBURG (AP) — Mifflin County Court Judge Paul S. Lehman Monday sentenced a Mifflin County physician to life imprisonment for the slaying of the physician's adopted daughter.

Dr. Samuel L. Woodhouse, 53, of Milroy, was found guilty of the shooting death of his adopted daughter, Betsy. The child was killed in the Woodhouse home Aug. 6, 1953.

Shortly after the slaying a lunacy commission ruled Woodhouse was insane. He was held in prisons and mental institutions until May, 1957 when ordered to stand trial. The physician was found guilty of first degree murder.

His attorney, Paul E. Fetterolf, asked the court to hold up imposition of the sentence pending an appeal of the verdict to the State Supreme Court.

3. Increase the strength of the police department in line with the President's Highway Safety Conference formula. The formula calls for two officers per 1,000 residents per 1,000 residents, including a traffic section of two officers per 10,000 population.

4. Improve the major street system by establishing two pairs of one-way streets and adopting an official policy covering construction, maintenace, traffic control devices and parking to meet transportation requirements.

Holland's example of self-help action to solve a home-grown traffic problem demonstrates safety personality-plus—a community trait that makes life a good deal brighter for the man in the driver's seat.

Talks Continue In Newspaper Strike

PHILADELPHIA (AP)— Mediation talks continue today in the strike of truck drivers at the Bulletin and Inquirer, now in its 25th day.

Federal Mediator Paul Yager met Monday with representatives of the Teamsters and the two Philadelphia papers. He made no announcement as to progress.

Yager did say a session also will be held today with representatives of the American Newspaper Guild and the Inquirer. The Guild has been on strike since expiration of its contract May 31.

The Bulletin has no Guild unit, nor has the Camden (N. J.) Courier-Post where the Teamsters also went out May 30.

All three papers continue to publish curtailed circulation.
